
BEST Fleets TO DRIVE FOR

Is Your Fleet One of the Best?

Truckload Carriers Association and CarriersEdge are once again looking for the best fleets for drivers and owner-operators, and we need your help!

If you think your fleet is a great place to be, tell us about it at:

www.BestFleetsToDriveFor.com

Best Fleets to Drive For identifies the for-hire trucking companies that provide the best total workplace experience for their drivers and owner-operators. Fleets must be nominated by a driver or owner-operator to be considered, and nominated fleets will be evaluated in a range of different categories, including compensation, benefits, professional development, HR & operational policies, safety, driver retention, and overall driver satisfaction.

Top finishers will be identified as Best Fleets to Drive For and the highest scoring fleets in each of the Company Driver and Owner-Operator categories will be named that category's overall winner.
